CONE-SNOOKS WEDDING
ASSEMBLED BRILLIANT SOCIETY GATHERING

Tuesday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock Miss Betty Jean Cone and Bartow Randolph Snooks, Jr., of Alley, were married by the Rev. Chas. A. Jackson, Jr., at the First Methodist Church.

The back of the church was veiled in white with garlands of pumosa fern used in drapery effect on either side. Palm, altar candles and tall standards of white gladioli and white dahlias graced the church. The pulpit and choir loft were so arranged that the bride and groom, grouped in tier, presented a brilliant nuptial scene to the assemblage of relatives and friends who witnessed the impressive ring ceremony.

As the guests assembled a program of wedding music was rendered by Mrs. Betty Holland, organist. Among the selections were "My Heart at Thy Sweet Voice," "Träumerei" and Schubert's "Ave Maria." Roger Holland, Jr., and Mrs. Gilbert Cone sang "The Desert Song." Mrs. Gilbert Cone sang "Through the Years" and as the couple knelt she sang "The Prayer Perfect."

As the first notes of the bride's organ pealed forth the ushers, groomsmen entered and, approaching the altar, took their places, awaiting the bride and groom. They were Edward Cone, Panama City, Fla.; Will Peterson, Jr., Soperton; John R. Peterson, Alley; Jim Neil Peterson, Soperton; Clarence Clodfelter, Jr., Macon, and C. M. Jordan, of Lumber City.

The bridesmaids wore models of American Beauty fashions, all skirts and bustle backs. They all wore matching gowns and carried bouquets of white gladioli and white dahlias. The groomsmen wore white tuxedos with white carnations and white gladioli and white dahlias. The bride wore a gown of white satin and carried a bouquet of white gladioli and white dahlias. The groom wore a tuxedo and carried a boutonniere of white gladioli and white dahlias.

The maid of honor was Miss Aldine Cone, of Bates Creek, Mich., sister of the bride. Mrs. James R. Bowman, of Fort Valley, was matron of honor. The bridesmaids were Miss Mary Jo Peterson, of Alley; Miss Lucile Carter, of Ray City, Fla.; Mrs. Leon Garfield, of Greensboro, N. C.; and Miss Virginia Lee Floyd, of Macon. The bridesmaids were Mary Ellen Cone, Vidalia, and Laura Massee Walker, Marshallville. Flower girls were Noel Benson and Lynn Collins. Thomas Clarence Clodfelter III, attired in a white satin suit carried the ring on a satin pillow.

The lovely brunette bride, who entered with her father and was met at the altar by the groom and his best man, Malcolm D. Peterson, of Alley, was given in marriage to the bridegroom by the Rev. Chas. A. Jackson, Jr., who officiated with a deep portrait necklace with a flaring Queen Anne collar, a fitted bodice and long sleeves pointed at the wrists. The full skirt gathered to a low waistline extended in back to form a long train. Her fingertip veil of French illusion was caught to a coronet of orange blossoms. She carried a cascade bouquet of gardenias centered with a white orchid and showered with roses.

Mrs. Cone, mother of the bride was given in marriage to the bridegroom by the Rev. Chas. A. Jackson, Jr., who officiated with a deep portrait necklace with a flaring Queen Anne collar, a fitted bodice and long sleeves pointed at the wrists. The full skirt gathered to a low waistline extended in back to form a long train. Her fingertip veil of French illusion was caught to a coronet of orange blossoms. She carried a cascade bouquet of gardenias centered with a white orchid and showered with roses.

During the afternoon Mr. and Mrs. Snooks left for Savannah, where they boarded a plane for New York City, the bride traveling in a regency white suit with grey belt and hat and misty grey accessories. She wore the orchid from her bride bouquet. They will be at home in Alley about the middle of October.

Social Security Reports Now Due, Says Dist. Manager

Martin J. Johnson, manager of the Savannah District of the Social Security Administration, reminds all employers that their Social Security reports covering July, August, and September, are now due.

Mr. Johnson points out that more than seventy millions wage record items are received by his bureau every calendar quarter. Of that number less than 1/4 of 1 per cent are reported with Social Security numbers missing. This, he says, is a very small percentage, but it is a Social Security number missing that can cause a great deal of trouble for the employer and the employee.

Whenever a report is sent in with a Social Security number missing that employer's report and his employee's cannot be credited with their earnings toward retirement and death benefits until every missing Social Security number is sent in. Mr. Johnson says that employers who check their records now to see that they have the Social Security number for each person whose name will be on the next report. He further advises employers to have each new employee show his Social Security card on the first day he goes to work.

"Save yourself unnecessary correspondence," says Mr. Johnson, "and protect your employees' Social Security benefits by sending in the Social Security number for each name reported."

NEVILS IS WINNER For Community Achievements

The Nevils community 4-H Club was awarded $100 by The Atlanta Journal Club congress for its community achievements.

The club officers met with advisors and teachers early in the spring and mapped out a community activity program that was agreeable to all concerned and in addition to their regular club projects. Most of these activities centered around the school, a church and the individual members' homes.

The group selected the school campus as a project and brought in tractors, fertilizer and other necessary materials to level and sod the grounds. The parking area was reworked by the county so that school buses could park in safety. A picnic ground was started back of a church near the school. A swimming pool and a saving course was conducted. Every clubster was asked and requested to have a dental examination. Every vaccination offered to prevent diseases common in this section, and procure the cooperation of their parents in cooperating with material and typhus control programs.

Devaughn Roberts, the club president, was in Atlanta to receive the award. Other officers of this club are Catherine Anderson and Jack Brannen, vice-presidents; Armina Burnside, secretary; Bobby Martin, reporter; Advisors were Mr. and Mrs. Rufus G. Brannen, Mrs. H. C. Burnside and Mr. J. M. Lewis.

The club entered more cattle in the annual fat stock show in the spring and Bobby won the champion. Devaughn, a former champion, won a big share of the money. Emory Godbee won the district health contest. Jack Brannen was state health winner last year. Delmas Rushing, Jr., was state leadership winner last year. Armina was district style revue winner in 1946.

out for a steak dinner. It might be pointed out that the dinner was based on the promise of the general club members to give the Forest Heights boys a chance to redeem themselves in a return match.

Charley Elliott teamed with Dr. Watson to defeat "Preacher" Jackson and G. C. Coleman, Jr. The "Preacher" had Dr. Watson hanging on the ropes at the end of the first nine holes when "Red" Roberts took the "Preacher's" place, the "Preacher" having to return to church duties. It was on the last nine holes that Watson and Elliott won the match.

Beamon Martin, formerly of Statesboro, teamed with another former local boy, Gip Johnson, to beat Buster Bowen and A. W. Stockdale. Jimmy Redding and Percy Rice lost to Jim Gills and Bernal Smith. Sidney Dodd and Fleming Pruitt had no better luck than any of the other "Heights" boys and lost to Frank Davis and Tommy Stevens. Sam Strauss, playing with Carl Sells and Gills, lost to Tom Johnson and Spurgeon Aaron (another former Bulloch boy) and Bill Peck, playing a single match, lost to Tom Martin.

Although the local boys were severely taught a lesson in how to play "better golf" by the Swainsboro aggregation, sportsmanship was the real winner as the local golfers took the visitors

Local Golfers Get Setback

Swainsboro's golf team found the Forest Heights golf course to their "liking" and proceeded to trounce the Forest Heights golfers 29 to 16 last Thursday afternoon.

The old saying, that the team playing in its own "backyard" starts out with the odds with them, failed the Statesboro golfers, and at the end of the final 18-hole match the Swainsboro golfers proved to the local boys that it takes more than "playing in your own backyard."

Headed by a dentist, Dr. Reid Watson, who not only drills holes and yanks teeth, but plays golf as though his patient in the chair was paying him $100.00 for every painful pull, the Swainsboro linksmen won every match of the meet.

A Verse For This Week

Law suits generally originate with the obstinate and the ignorant, but they do not end with them; and that lawyer was right who left all his money to the support of an asylum for fools and lunatics, saying that from such he got it, and to them would bequeath it.—Jeremy Bentham.

Like Two Goats On A Log

If you have children and if you drive them to and from school every day you are aware of the headache attached to driving along Grady street to Institute street and back in the mornings and afternoons. Grady street is a narrow one in the first place. Cars pack on both sides of the street and then two cars try to pass in the center. It can't be done! To see two cars facing each other, each waiting for the other to back up is like watching two goats on a log. If it's raining, the situation is multiplied to the extent that the patience and temper is tried. It can be cleared up with ease and with no trouble to anyone. Merely mark the north side of the street with "NO PARKING" signs. (As a matter of fact, it may now be designated as a "no parking" sign but, if so, it is not enforced and the yellow paint has long ago worn from the curb.) Declare it a one-way street from your car from College street along Grady street to Institute street and back in the mornings and afternoons. Cars could park on the south side of the street, in front of the high school building and at the side of the grammar school building. Traffic could move smoothly along Grady, stop, discharge the grammar school and primary children, continue along Grady, make a right turn at Institute or continue and turn left at the corner of the school ground and on to home. No turning around at Institute and meeting traffic and becoming snarled up in the "danger-raising" situations. And the margin of safety for your child will be increased tremendously. Let's try it.

Congratulations, Nevils

Congratulations to the Nevils community 4-H Club. Agreeing upon a project, they set to with a will and vigor to make their work the most outstanding in the State of Georgia. It is fitting that their project centered its activities around the Nevils school. Every clubster in the school was urged to have a dental examination and eyes checked.

LOOKING AT THE "BLUE DEVILS"

AND THE BOYS IN BLUE got rolling along Friday night they sparked to a 38 to 0 victory over an inexperienced Baxley team to mark up their second victory in two starts this season. "THE MAN" TEEL threw the book at the boys from Baxley. THE PARRISH-SIMS passing combination was clicking. Fuller, Hunnicutt, Ben Robert Nesmith and Harold DeLoach contributed lots of yards to the total count. Bobby Olliff gave a beautiful exhibition of sidestepping and fading at the proper places and correct times. LAURIE PRICE, the center, the man who is never seen, the man who puts the ball in play, he helped the boys who tote the mail by his sure passes from center. BUCKY ARINS throws his weight around where it does the most good. And Sidney Perkins uses his height right. AND "RED" PARRISH did not always throw that ball to Simmons for Jerry Howard, the other end, has glue in his hands, too. ASHTON CASSIDY, a guard who doubles in the backfield, to Ben Jack Upchurch set up a passing combination that accounted for one of the touchdowns Friday night. BEAUTIFUL BLOCKING was one of the game's features. AND THE FLEET FEET of Emory Nesmith caught the fancy entire line over with him. Score:

The Almanac Says the Weather This Week On...

TODAY, THURSDAY, October 9, will be cool and cloudy.
FRIDAY, October 10, will be rainy.
SATURDAY, October 11, will be fair and warmer.
SUNDAY, October 12, will be rainy.
MONDAY, October 13, will be cool and crisp.
TUESDAY, October 14, will be cool and fair.
WEDNESDAY, October 15—We'll let YOU guess for this date.

... But Don't Blame Us If the Almanac Is Wrong!

YOU DON'T give it very much thought. You observe ordinary practices to prevent fires from breaking out in your home. But you are not very much concerned. For you know that if your home should catch fire, and if you get the alarm in plenty of time, that the Statesboro fire department will be there to do all it can to put it out and protect your property and the property of your neighbors. THE CHANCES ARE that you have no idea of how your fire department is operated. You may be aware that Logan Hagan is fire chief, but do you know who the fire-eaters are? And do you know that they are entirely volunteer firemen? That the revenue only $4 per fire, regardless of the damages to the clothes they are wearing or the dangers to which they subject themselves when they are forced to call on them. THE WEEK IS National Fire Prevention Week. Statesboro is joining the nation in observing it. And it is a good time to become acquainted with the boys in whose hands lies the safety of your home and property when threatened by fire. WHO ARE YOUR FIREMEN? They are your neighbors, friends—living up and down the street from you—with families, who have regular jobs. Statesboro 13, Baxley 0.

THE NEXT TOUCHDOWN was made up on the Blue Devil's own 28 yard line when Emory Nesmith received a Baxley punt and would not go down. He then made eight yards on a beautiful run. Bobby Olliff made it a first down on the left side. Then Ben Robert broke into the clear for a 225 yard run to Baxley's 35 yard line. Then Emory got off on a sparkling run behind magnificent blocking and superb interference made it across the pay line standing up. Score: Statesboro 19, Baxley 0. THE NEXT SCORE came up quickly when Jack Upchurch caught a beautiful pass from Ashton Cassidy in the clear and kicked off 20 yards to make the score. Score: Statesboro 25, Baxley 0. (The attempt to kick for the extra point failed). The half ended when the Boys in Blue kicked off to Baxley. TWO MORE touchdowns came up in the second half. Penalized three times, the Blue Devils were forced to kick from behind their own goal line before they could set up the fifth touchdown. They were on their own 45 yard line. "Red" received the ball for the extra point failed and the score was Statesboro 26, Baxley 0. ON THE EIGHTH play of the second quarter, the Boys in Blue ran the score up to 12 points and Ashton Cassidy kicked a goal for the extra point. (The first extra point in five touchdowns). Ben Robert and Donald Fuller, to Ben Jack Upchurch set up a passing combination that accounted for one of the touchdowns Friday night. BEAUTIFUL BLOCKING was one of the game's features. AND THE FLEET FEET of Emory Nesmith caught the fancy entire line over with him. Score:

Lasts long... and lasts well!

The records prove that no car lasts longer than a Pontiac—but this is only half the story! For Pontiac continues, throughout the years, to render fine performance—to give its owner the same thrill he felt when he first took the wheel. Owners who have driven their Pontiacs for five, seven, and even ten years will testify that their cars still give complete satisfaction in every way. For Pontiac is a GOOD car—designed and built to stay on the job. This is a basic Pontiac virtue—and is true of Pontiac year after year. So regardless of when you expect to get your next car, get a Pontiac. It will not only last long—it will last well!

DUE TO OUR UNFILLED ORDERS ON HAND, you may experience some delay in getting a new Pontiac. Place your order now to avoid further delay. In the meantime, let us keep your present car operating at top efficiency.

All this fuss about the length of skirts leaves me undisturbed. My clothes are always short, but I wear them long. It's when they wear completely out that I become perturbed. For replacements are high, my money is too short and my face gets LONG.

AT A RECENT SUPPER in the Methodist Church, Presbyter Jackson called for a volunteer to sing "Jesus Loves Me." Immediately, four-year-old Mary Jo McManus raised her hand in response and, while her mother, Mrs. C. J. McManus, who was helping serve supper nearly faint, the adorable tot's sweet treble voice went through all the verses without a hitch. The applause was tumultuous.

STATESBORO FOLKS are going to get together wherever they roam. In distant Korea, Ennis Cail, using the notoriously inefficient telephone service of that country, put in a call at Seoul for Robert Morris at Chin Hae, 400 miles away, and arranged for a visit with him. Their topic of conversation when they meet? Why, Statesboro and homefolks.

COULD BE that Bing Crosby, his wife Dixie Lee, and their four talented sons might drop in some day to visit Aunt Yo. Aunt Yo is already well established in Statesboro, though almost a newcomer. You know her as Mrs. Max De Baux, who came here with her husband from Baltimore. She and Pearl Davis are good friends and Pearl was delighted to have them come to Statesboro.

PEARL BRANNEN (Mrs. Julian), who doesn't go down to the corner grocery for a head of cabbage without being impeccably attired, was handsomely gown Sunday in an autumn crisp black outfit—definitely this season's favorite. Her hat, a black felt, had a smooth, untruffled feather and one of those fancy fish tail veils that float with such flattering effect. Her black frock with lace-trimmed peplum drapes had just the style that would prompt her children to say with pardonable pride, "This is my mama."

DONALD McDUGGALL has learned the hard way that a fellow has to be fortified before he takes part in a wedding. After toppling over at the Bowers Christian ceremony and scaring folks nearly to death, he realized that you just gotta eat your dinner. He came thru beautifully at the Watson-Fiveash nuptials.

KATHERINE WHITE comes up with new tricks in flower arrangements. It's probably because she recently attended the National F. T. D. convention held in Chicago. Twenty-five florists were there from foreign countries and they really went to school. At Medinah Temple visiting florists used $25,000 worth of flowers in floral arrangement which were used as background for a fashion show put on by Marshall Field. Models wore jewelry worth a million. Seats for the fashion show cost $10 each. Visiting florists saw it for free.

WHEN JUDSON WARD was inaugurated as whatever you call the formal ceremony which makes you a college president—his father was probably thinking: This is the finest birthday I've ever had. For this honor came to a reunion with her five sisters. Though President Ward is by no means elderly, he had this to say about his attractive wife, Sue Ward: "If she looks like my daughter, she's my wife." He acknowledges three women in his life—his mother, his wife, and Miss Mae Michael—and his deference to the counsel of Miss Mae was revealed in a schoolboyish manner at the close of his address as he looked over to where she sat and asked, "Miss Mae, is there anything else I should do?"

ALATHEAN CLASS HAS BUSINESS MEETING

Members of the Alathean class of the First Baptist Church met at the home of their president, Mrs. Glenn Jennings, last Wednesday afternoon. Miss Mary Lou Carmichael is teacher of this class.

After the business meeting Mrs. Jake Murray, of the Program Committee, directed the social activities.

Mrs. Jennings served a dessert course with coffee. Twenty members were present.

FIRST PARTY FOR EMILY BRANNEN

Emily Brannen made her debut at her first real party Friday on her birthday at her mother, Mrs. Lester Brannen, Jr., invited twenty-five boys and girls to celebrate with her.

It was a lovely day and the children played on Aunt Nita's lawn (Mrs. George Prather).

After she opened her lovely gifts, she reciprocated by letting her small guests find colorful balloons in the trees and shrubbery. Emily also received her first corsage, given her by little Noel Benson. Four generations were present: her great-grandmother, Mrs. W. R. Woodcock; grandmother, Mrs. Lester Brannen, Sr.; her mother, and herself, Mrs. Lester Brannen, Jr. Barbara Ann Brannen assisted in serving dixie cups and birthday cake.

EMBLEM BREAKFAST FOR BUSINESS, PROFESSIONAL WOMEN'S CLUB MEMBERS

One of the loveliest affairs of the past week was an Emblem breakfast Sunday at the Norris Hotel, which assembled forty members of the Business and Professional Women's Club. The theme emphasized for last week was "Facing the Future," and since these plans were global in effect, a globe was used as a centerpiece for the long table. A green and white color motif was used in the decorations and the carnation corsage was at every place. The unique place cards so identified each member that no names were used, each guest finding her correct place.

Miss Grace Gray, president, presided at the breakfast program. Miss Gwen West gave the club collect. Guest speaker was Mrs. Mary W. Robertson, of Albany, Ga., second vice-president of the State Federation, her topic being "Our Federation, Our Faith." Bernard Morris, accompanist, by Jack Averitt, sang "Sunrise and You," followed by the Emblem Benediction.

THE DECKERS

Miss Betty Rowse entertained The Deckers Wednesday afternoon at her home on East Grady street with Miss Dot Flanders as co-hostess.

Early fall flowers were used in decorating. A dessert course and coffee were served. Mrs. Tom Smith won an ice chopper for high. Miss Gwen West won a deck of Congee cards for low. A comb set went to Mrs. Bernard Scott for low. Mrs. Buddy Barnes, Mrs. Billy Tillman, Miss Inez Stephens, Miss Virginia Atkins, Miss Helen Scott and Mrs. J. G. Aultman were the other players.

DECKERS HOSTESSES AT STEAK SUPPER

The Deckers entertained their husbands and dates at a steak supper Thursday evening at Will Woodcock's cabin.

Served with the sizzling steaks were potato chips, lettuce and tomato salad, rolls, pickles, coffee, cakes, and cakes.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Tom Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Buddy Barnes, Mrs. Billy Tillman, Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Aultman, Inez Stephens and Richard Gulleve, Virginia Atkins and Dorothy Tolson of Atlanta, Dot Flanders and Ed Bruce of Brunswick, Betty Rowse and Ed Shepherd of Millen, Gwen West and Herbert Johnson of Augusta, and Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Scott.

SALE UNDER POWER IN SECURITY DEED

GEORGIA, Bulloch County. Under authority of the powers of sale and conveyance contained in the security deed given to me by Rufus Lester Smith on August 7, 1946, recorded in Book 167, page 182, in the office of the Clerk of Bulloch Superior Court, I will, on the first Tuesday in November, 1947, within the legal hours of sale, sell at public outcry to the highest bidder for cash, before the court house door in said county, the property conveyed therein, as the property of the said Rufus Smith, Jr., and James Heard, viz:

A one-thirteenth undivided interest in remainder, and any additional interest the said Rufus Lester Smith may own or be entitled to, in and to that certain tract of land, known as the Jacob Smith place in the 1209th District, Bulloch County, Georgia, containing 172 acres, more or less, bounded North by lands of Mrs. Homer, East by lands of W. D. Deal estate, South by lands of Mrs. Morgan Olliff and West by lands of W. T. Grimes. (Subject to the life interest of Mrs. Laura Smith therein and subject to a prior security deed given by Rufus Lester Smith to J. B. Johnson to secure an indebtedness of $100.00 and interest).

Said sale to be made for the purpose of enforcing payment of the indebtedness secured by security deed in my favor, amounting to $125.36, computed to the date of sale, now past due. A deed will be executed to the purchaser at said sale, conveying title in remainder, subject to said life estate and subject to said prior security deed.

This October 6, 1947. MRS. ALMA H. BOOTH.

SALE UNDER POWER IN SECURITY DEED

GEORGIA, Bulloch County. Under authority of the powers of sale and conveyance contained in the security deed given to me by Silas Heard, Jr., and James Heard on December 7, 1943, recorded in Book 150, page 422, in the office of the Clerk of Bulloch Superior Court, I will, on the first Tuesday in November, 1947, within the legal hours of sale, sell at public outcry to the highest bidder, for cash, the land conveyed therein, as the property of the said Silas Heard, Jr., and James Heard, viz:

That certain tract of land, lying and being in the 1716th District, Bulloch County, and the 1429th District, Emanuel County, Georgia, containing one hundred twenty and one-tenth acres, more or less, bounded North by lands of Mrs. Fannie L. McKenzie and Willie A. Key, East and Southeast by lands of John B. Fields, Cowart and West by lands now or formerly owned by W. T. Lamb; reference being made to a plat of said land recorded in Book 68, page 144, in said Clerk's office.

Said sale to be made for the purpose of enforcing payment of the indebtedness secured by security deed in my favor, amounting to $125.36, computed to the date of sale, now past due. A deed will be executed to the purchaser at said sale, conveying title in remainder, subject to said life estate and subject to said prior security deed.

"Service with a Smile"

Motorists are mighty glad to patronize Ed's Service Station. The driveway's always cleanly swept, the pumps kept nicely painted, and the office and rest rooms neat and spotless. And Ed himself is "Service with a Smile."

It's not only Ed's idea. The company that supplies Ed's oil and gasoline insists on certain standards—not just in the upkeep of the station, but in the courteous service that Ed renders.

It's like the brewers' program of Self-Regulation. Through bulletins, meetings and personal visits, the brewers encourage retailers of beer to maintain clean, low-sliding taverns. Those that don't toe the line are reported to the authorities.

From where I sit, it's just common business sense to see that the product which you sell is handled by responsible, courteous people through attractive outlets. It's the good will and the gratitude of the community.

County Fair
OPENS OCT. 20

The Bulloch County Fair will open at the air base Monday, with community exhibits of products grown, made, canned, and produced on the various farms in the county as the major attraction. Fred W. Hodges, general fair committee chairman, announces.

Civic club leaders in Statesboro have been asked to serve as judges of these exhibits. "They will be placed on the basis of variety, quality, and educational value of the products entered in the exhibits."

The Royal Exposition Shows will provide the midday attractions.

Wednesday will be school day, when all school children will be admitted free. The negro school children will be admitted Thursday.

Various farm machinery dealers are arranging displays of the latest types of labor saving machinery.

League of Women
Voters to Hold Open
Meeting October 23

The League of Women Voters of Bulloch County this week invites the citizens of Statesboro and Bulloch county to an open forum meeting to be held Thursday evening, October 23, at 8:00 o'clock in the Teachers College library building.

A general discussion will be held on International Trade and the Tariff Laws. Congressman Prince H. Preston and Dr. Herbert Weaver will participate in the discussions to be led by Dr. Melvin Trussell.

"MRS. WIGGS OF CABBAGE PATCH" IS TONIGHT AT COLLEGE AUDITORIUM

The play, "Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch," will be presented at the Teachers College tonight, sponsored by the Business and Professional Girls Club for the benefit of the youth recreation program for Statesboro.

Three More Citizens
Become Public Office
Candidates This Week

This week three more Bulloch county citizens became candidates for county political offices.

Miss Hattie Powell and Joe Oliff Akins state that they will be candidates for the office of the Clerk of Bulloch Superior Court, and Hobson Donaldson states he is a candidate for the Tax Commissioner's office.

Mr. Akin is a veteran with three and a half years in clerical work in the army, following two and a half years in college.

Miss Powell has served in the office of the Clerk as deputy clerk for 15 years.

Storm Alerts City
Public Services

Tuesday night and Wednesday were rough times on the public utilities in Statesboro and Bulloch county, as this community caught the edge of a hurricane which hit the Atlantic seaboard and moved westward across the southern part of the state.

Charlie Joe Mathews, plant superintendent of the Statesboro Telephone Company, states that at noon yesterday the Savannah telephone circuit to Statesboro was out and the circuit to Millen was out, but was back in at 7:30 yesterday morning. All local service was maintained throughout.

The flurry. A crew of three men was alerted to handle any break that might occur.

Sam Strauss, district manager of the Georgia Power Company, states that the entire line crew of the Augusta division of the power company was alerted to be rushed into the area in the event of major line breaks. Except for about four minutes, all electric service was maintained as he had the local crew working at strategic points.

Farmers report peanut racks blown over and general wind damage.

A DREAM COMING TRUE—Right now it's just a hole in the ground with some concrete forms around it, but to the hundreds of kids and young people of Statesboro it's more than that—it's the swimming pool. The swimming pool about which they have dreamed for over ten years, since the Dorman Pool. It is located on the municipal playground back of the Woman's Club Home, near Zetterower Avenue. Citizens of Statesboro have contributed the major portion of the funds now being used in beginning the construction with the Junior Chamber of Commerce supplementing these funds with money set aside for this purpose over a period of years. No date has been announced for finishing the pool, but the Jaycees have adopted the slogan, "THE SWIMMING POOL IS STARTED; LET'S FINISH IT!"

THE SWIMMING POOL IS STARTED; LET'S FINISH IT!

This is the fighting slogan of the Statesboro Junior Chamber of Commerce as they go into what they want to be the final phase of assuring the youth of Statesboro and Bulloch County their swimming pool.

For years there has been talk about building a swimming pool. There have been several attempts at making the swimming pool a reality.

During the war years, a committee made up of members of the several civic clubs in the city secured a substantial amount of money from citizens in sympathy with the youth recreation program, including the swimming pool.

More recently, the city and county cooperated and helped secure the plans for the pool.

An now the pool is in the process of construction. And in about two weeks the money being used to start the pool will be exhausted.

Today the Jaycees begin their big push to secure $20,000.00 to complete the youth project.

This is the only project for which funds have been requested of the citizens of Statesboro to be used for the sole benefit of the young people of this community.

The swimming pool is actually under construction. The kids of Statesboro are eagerly awaiting summertime, anticipating the good times they will have when the pool will be open to them next summer.

It is unthinkable that they should be disappointed! They must not be disappointed.

Your contribution will be the finest investment you will ever make—an investment in the youth of Statesboro.

THE SWIMMING POOL IS STARTED; LET'S FINISH IT!

Bill Rigdon, Lt.-Commander in the Navy has been placed and seen things. When he reaches the ripe old age, he won't have to rely on memory for the material for his memoirs. He has made copious notes and technical color movies covering his rich and varied experiences.

He and his wife are visiting his sister, Mrs. Ben Lane, to Zella Lane he is quite another brother, but she can't just hide her pride in Bill's brilliant Naval career.

Commander Rigdon has served four years as assistant to the Naval Aide. During this time, he has been with five naval aides and two presidents. On trips he is closely associated with the President, he has also been in the capacity of personal secretary.

Not so very experienced in this business of interviewing, I may not do justice to this modest naval officer.

He considers his trip with President Roosevelt to Tehran, where, for the first time, the Big Three, Roosevelt, Churchill and Stalin, met in conference. Preceding this, they had visited Cairo, to talk things over with General Chiang Kai Shek, who was then in the conference because his country was at war with Japan only. Billy says the greatest spectacle to him was the aerial view of the U. S. A. food pipeline through Iran and Iraq to Russia, for food and fuel, thence to our military posts. This highway, covering a distance of six thousand miles, was filled with trucks of supplies in a conga line, about the Missouri, and present at the Yalta Conference. He was with the presidential party two years ago at Berlin, where the Chief Executive conferred with Stalin.

Briefly spotting other highlights, he was present when Roosevelt met with General MacArthur and Admiral Nimitz in Hawaii. He also went with Roosevelt on his inspection tour of war plants and army installations. To illustrate the vast distances covered by Bill, he was ordered down the west coast of Australia, putting in at Perth. From there they were dispatched to the Aleutians, and thence to Washington, D. C.

To him, the recent trip to Rio de Janeiro, where Truman was a pleasure cruise.

A native of Bulloch county, he was quick to discover Robin Haggins, a student at the University of Georgia, who was also present at the Yalta Conference. He was with the presidential party two years ago at Berlin, where the Chief Executive conferred with Stalin.

Jaycees Erect Sign To Direct Tourists In and Out of Town

Tourists coming into Statesboro at North Main Street and Parish Street, where U. S. 301 and U. S. 80 touch, can see at a glance which direction to follow to their destination by the sign erected by the Junior Chamber of Commerce, points out the direction of Augusta, Atlanta, New York, Savannah and Florida. It stands at the Southeastern corner of North Main and North Main streets. The sign is part of the Jaycees program to make Statesboro attractive to visitors.

BLUE DEVILS PLAY METTER TONIGHT FOR THE FIRST OUT-OF-TOWN GAME

The Statesboro Blue Devils will play Metter tomorrow night for their first out-of-town game of the season.
